To whom it may concern:

I have been asked to write this letter of reference for Maricielo Nunez, a young woman with whom I have had an association for four years in my role as Teacher. It is my pleasure to grant her request for this letter.

My experience with Maricielo has been more than positive. She has demonstrated a unique ability to transcend what is merely required of her in order to make herself and those around her exceed expectations. Not only does she rise to the challenges confronting her, but she does so with enthusiasm, a sense of duty, and an unwillingness to be satisfied with anything less than the best from herself. She has fun doing it too!

Maricielo has certainly achieved both academic and extracurricular success. In just 3 years in the United States, she has maintained a high GPA of 3.7, top 14% of her class, scored a 5 on her AP Spanish Language Test, and started her Dual Enrollment with Broward College the summer before her senior year began.

While maintaining her high academic status, she has also participated in school activities such as being on the girls' volleyball team and becoming team captain and MVP of her 2017-2018 season. She also was a member of Spanish Honors Society, Vice President of the National Honors Society, member of Student Government Association, Latinos In Action, Key Club, and Big Brother and Big Sisters.

Maricielo has also earned more than 196 service hours by volunteering with Latinos in Action, Big Brother Big Sisters, Button and Bows Daycare, several marathons, and much more.

What sets Maricielo apart is her desire to be more than a mere student. She excels in projects, helps those in need and asks to help me when needed. She doesn't just get the grades, she motivates others while doing it with a smile her face. It is this combination of balance and boundless effort that makes it easy for me to see nothing but a bright and successful future for this impressive student and young woman. She is well trusted among her peers. From meeting deadlines to motivating and helping others to meet theirs, Maricielo is an overall great person and I see nothing but great things in her future.

Sincerely,
Alexandra Ramos
