

Arthur Bilotti received his court reporting degree from Merchants and Bankers Business School in Manhattan, NY.

In 1970 he moved from New York to Hollywood Fl with his wife Corinna. Arthur has been a member of the National Court Reporters Association and the Florida Court Reporters Association.

He was President of the Tamerlane Homeowners Association, a community here in Hollywood. He is on the Board of Directors of the Jubilee Center, an organization in Hollywood that provides food, clothing and help to the homeless and needy. He is associated with St. James Episcopal Church, St. James Finance Committee, Property Committee and Search Committee. Arthur is on the Board of Directors of the Hollywood Hills Civic Association.

Today, Arthur is still working as a court reporter and his wife is his transcriptionist. They have a daughter, Gina, who graduated from Florida State University and she received her second degree graduating with honors from Florida International University.

Arthur and Corinna were avid tennis players. Arthur was the Captain of the Men's Tennis Doubles Team and also the Mixed Doubles Team. Arthur likes to play golf.